Auditor: Tat Shum

Tat is an extremely hard working, responsible and enthusiastic volunteer. His experience and leadership skills as a community volunteer have been highly notable. He is the current National Director of Outreach and Cultural Affairs for the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association. As a life member of FAPAC, he has served as a volunteer on many occasions such as a moderator/ staff member in various workshops during the past FAPAC National Conferences, a Mentor in the previous FAPAC Career Development & Mentoring Program, and a chairman for the 2015 Fundraising Committee., etc. Utilizing the same high level of motivation, analytical thinking, philosophical approach and team building skills, Tat will be a great contributor added to the arsenal to strive for a higher level of organizational achievement for the FAPAC.

Cultural Affairs