

Peter M. Nguyen
Vice President for Operations
Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC)

Since joining FAPAC over two decades ago, Mr. Nguyen has been very active and passionate as an officer of the organization. He has accomplished many goals as the current VP of Operations for the current two years term, most significant is achieving the FAPAC financial to first ever half-million dollars balance. During this term, he was successfully demonstrated his leadership skills with the creation and leading the three highly successful WHIAAPI Challenge Team. He has also directly involved with the creation of the first FAPAC Business Advisor Partners. He continues to be key advisor member and a mentor for the FAPAC Career Development Program for High Performers for four years.

Currently He serves as the manager for the Finance and Management Organization at the FAA. He is currently responsible for managing the Information Technology and Information Systems Security for various agency level Investment Decision processes such as Joint Resources Council, Post Implementation Review, and Earned Value Management in support of the Executive Secretariat of the Joint Resources Council.

Mr. Nguyen has been with the FAA since 1991 and has held various Program Manager and Team Lead positions in the Management System Division and Information Technology Division. He holds a Bachelors of Science Degree in Electronics Engineering Technology from Oklahoma State University and a Master of Science Degree in Information Systems from Strayer University. He currently holds a certification from the National Training Standard for Information Systems Security Professionals, which was obtained at the National Defense University, Information Resources Management College.

Mr. Nguyen is very active with APA organizations. He was the National President for the FAA National Asian and Pacific American Association (NAPA) representing over 1700 members nationwide. As the President of NAPA that lasted four years, he had brought NAPA from virtually non-existent to a very strong, powerful, and unites employees association. He was also served as the Program Committee Chair and was previously the Scholarship & Internship Committee Chair for the Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC). In addition, he was a key member of the Asian American Government Executives Network (AAGEN), and an active member of the National Asian Peace Officers Association (NAPOA) as which he is currently a certified Law Enforcement Officer for Virginia for the last 24 years.

Mr. Nguyen is totally committed to FAPAC's mission and objectives and it is an honor for him to continue to serve FAPAC as the Vice President of Operations with Integrity, Honor, and Respect